QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Senator Wolfe arose to a question of personal privilege, and spoke as follows:

MR. PRESIDENT: I desire to arise to a question of personal privilege. I hold in my hand a copy of the San Francisco "Call," in which there was this morning an editorial headed "Senator Wolfe's Bitterness."

Now, ordinarily, Mr. President, I would pay very little attention to an editorial that referred to me in any way, that was contained in the San Francisco "Call." This editorial is not conceived out of any regard for the public good; it is not conceived for any worthy purpose. It is conceived out of the malice that the manager of the San Francisco "Call" bears to me, and has borne to me since I refused to do his bidding in the Legislature of the State of California two years ago and one year ago. Now, the editorial referred to alludes to the debate upon the floor of the Senate with reference to what is known as the China Basin lease. This is the first time, Mr. President, that the San Francisco "Call" has ever come out into the open in favor of the ratification of the China Basin lease. The San Francisco "Call" may be well termed the "hoodoo" in journalism in San Francisco, for in recent times, whenever it has favored anything, the public has paid absolutely no attention to it, and the measures have gone the other way. In San Francisco, it has absolutely no weight at all, for it has been demonstrated in recent times that the fact that the San Francisco "Call" advocates the election of a man to office, or the fact that the San Francisco "Call" attacks a man, has absolutely no weight with the thinking citizens of San Francisco and this State.

Prior to the last election, when I was a candidate for renomination to the office of State Senator, the pages of the "Call" were filled with attacks against me; not such attacks as I could resent in a legal way, or in the courts of the State, but in the same cowardly manner that characterizes the present management of the "Call." By innuendo and indirection they sought to tear down my character in the community in which I live. They endeavored by honorable and dishonorable means to defeat me for renomination, and when I had received the renomination there was no effort spared, either in the expenditure of money or the exercise of personal influence, small as it may be, that the manager of the "Call" can exert in the City and County of San Francisco, that was not used to bring about my defeat for the office of State Senator. And what was the result? I was reelected to this office by a larger majority than that which sent me here the first time. I carried my own Assembly district by the largest majority that was ever given to a Republican candidate in the history of that district. So the "Call" and its manager, Mr. Leake, were silenced, and they had no opportunity to attack me again until the question of the China Basin lease came up; and I say that this is the first time that it was known in San Francisco, and in the State, that the "Call" was interested in the passage of the bill ratifying the China Basin lease; because if it had been known, Mr. President, it is my absolute belief that not all the eloquence of the gentlemen who favored it, not all their earnestness and sincerity in their cause, could have prevented its defeat upon the floor of the Senate.

Why, Mr. President, in the lower house of the Legislature there was a distinguished and honorable gentleman, a candidate for the office of Speaker of that body. He had served in that position honorably and well, and he sought reelection, as he was justly entitled to do, but it became known throughout the State of California that the Democratic manager of the "Call" was making the fight for that gentleman. It became known that he was trying to have it believed that the honorable, distinguished gentleman was his candidate for that office, and what was the result? Immediately there came a revulsion of feeling. The Republicans in the lower house in this State resented, and they refused to be delivered and managed by Mr. Leake, and therefore the gentleman was defeated for that office, and another gentleman, equally as honorable, was elected by the Assembly to that position.

Now, Mr. President, these are not the only matters in which the San Francisco "Call" has been on the losing side, and I do not propose to go into all of those questions at all, but what I want to especially emphasize here to-day is the evident personal malice that actuated the printing and publishing of this editorial. It uses the language that it used in the campaign. It pretends to belittle me by referring to me by my first name, by which I guess I am called by ninety-five per cent of those who know me. It pretends to belittle me by saying that I reflected upon the honor and the integrity of the merchants of the City and County of San Francisco.

Mr. President, I said the other day, in the debate upon that bill, that I thought I was in as close touch with the merchants of San Francisco as any of the honorable and distinguished Senators who were on the other side of this question. And that that is the truth I challenge contradiction. When the merchants of San Francisco have wanted legislation introduced upon the floor of this Senate, they have appointed their committees to wait upon me and ask me to take charge of their legislation. When the merchants of San Francisco and of the State wanted a bill introduced in the Legislature appropriating a large sum of money for the conservation of the waters of this State and the protection of their forests, something new in the history of California, they appointed a committee of gentlemen to wait upon me, and asked me as an especial favor to take charge of that legislation, and I am happy to say that to-day that bill is in the hands of the Governor. When the wholesale merchants of San Francisco, a great many of whom belong to these organizations to which allusion was made yesterday, wanted a bill introduced that should protect them from the fraud of the people with whom they transact their business, they appointed a committee to wait upon me in my office, and asked me to take charge of their legislation, and I am happy to say that that bill has passed the Senate, and is at the head of the third-reading file in the Assembly at the present time. When they wanted a State normal school in San Francisco, they asked me to take charge of that legislation, but I am greatly indebted to the assistance of my colleagues from San Francisco upon the floor of the Senate for the passage of that measure, as well as for the passage of the measure that appropriates a fund for the erection of a building.

Now, Mr. President, at the adjournment of the last session of the Legislature, Senator Smith of Kern, a gentleman whom I have always held in high regard, though we have differed time and time again upon the floor of this Senate upon important matters of public policy, and with reference to the political aspirations of the distinguished gentlemen of this State, Senator Smith of Kern, in shaking me by the hand, bidding me good bye, asked me if I intended to return to the Senate of the State of California. I told him I did not think so, and he said, "I hope that you will come"; and I said, "Why do you say that?" He said, "Because we have been able to know that which San Francisco wants, and we appreciate your services for your city." So the leader of the gentlemen who favored the ratification of the China Basin lease does not agree with the editor of the San Francisco "Call" in his attack upon my record in the Legislature of the State of California.

Now, Mr. President, this article deliberately misstates my remarks upon the floor of the Senate on Wednesday. I particularly said that I knew of the honor and integrity of the merchants of San Francisco and the State. What I did do was to criticize the ease and facility with which resolutions were passed by the Merchants' Association of San Francisco upon every conceivable measure that came before the Legislature of the State of California. I said, "Where are the resolutions from this body affecting the measures asked for by the laboring classes of the State?" I said, "Where are the resolutions asking for the passage of a constitutional amendment that shall control and regulate telephone charges and the management of the telephone business in the State of California?" "Because," I said, "if ever there was a demand for legislation from the people of the State, it was for legislation of that kind, and they were silent."

Perchance," I said, "that some of them might be personally interested in matters of that kind."

Now, Mr. President, it perhaps is not a matter of general importance to the Senate—the attack that has been made upon me, but I remember the speech made by the eloquent gentleman from Amador the other day, and I shall long remember it, and remember what he said with reference to the time having gone by when a man can climb to power in the State of California by attacking corporations. He thanked God that that time had forever gone by in this State, and I indorsed that sentiment; but I say, sir, thank God the time has gone by in the State of California when a man must bend the knee to the manager of a great newspaper in order that he may get political preferment at the hands of his constituents. The time has gone by when a man need fear the attacks of a newspaper, so long as he is conscious of the rectitude of his purpose and the honesty of his intentions in representing the people of the State. Why, sir, were a man to so prostitute himself as to become the creature of a man like the man who wrote that editorial he should be held up to the eternal contempt of all mankind, for he would have to follow him in such narrow and slimy paths that he would not be worthy of the respect of his fellow citizens.

Why, sir, I have lived in San Francisco nearly all my life; I have held positions of trust there; I have held positions not of profit, but positions of honor, in the City of San Francisco, and I will place my reputation in the community in which I live against that of the gentleman who wrote that editorial.

Why, sir, it will be but a short time before there will be a change in the name of the management of the San Francisco "Call." I prophesy that upon the floor of the Senate to-day, because the man who found him—the man who placed him in that position—is denouncing him from one end of San Francisco to the other. So that I say, Mr. President, a man need not fear attacks of that kind, and were it not for the position in which he seeks to place me with the merchants of San Francisco, a great many of whom, on the Board of Trade and on the Chamber of Commerce, are my personal friends, I would not have taken up the time of the Senate in the manner that I have done.

HENRY T. GAGE,
Governor of the State of California.

Also:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, }
SACRAMENTO, March 8, 1901. }

To the Senate of the State of California:

I herewith return to your honorable body without my approval, with my objections thereto, Senate Bill No. 181, entitled "An Act for the dissolution of irrigation districts, the ascertainment and discharge of their indebtedness, and the distribution of their property."

While a law for the dissolution of irrigation districts seems to be needed to relieve the electors of the districts from many harassing conditions occasioned by inability to carry out district plans, I regret that I cannot approve the present measure. The many important rights and interests of the creditors, as well as the electors, of the various districts require the preparation of a careful and specific law for the speedy determination of such rights and interests upon the dissolution of the districts.

The present bill is obscurely worded in some of its most material parts, and its approval would result in much complicated litigation, rather than in attaining the object desired of a simple and summary remedy.

A few parts of the bill are invalid on account of their plain violation of constitutional provisions. The closing sentence of Section 4 is an instance, where it reads: "Either party shall have the right to appeal at any time within thirty days after the entering of such judgment, and the appeal must be heard and determined within three months after the taking of such appeal."

This provision violates the third subdivision of Section 25, Article IV, of the State Constitution. [See Cullen vs. Glendora Water Co., 113 Cal. 504.]

The object of creating such corporations as are provided for in Section 7 of the bill is not apparent, but as this provision is foreign to the purpose of the bill, and is not expressed in its title, I assume that such provision would be invalid.

It is difficult to understand the meaning of the word "franchises," appearing in Sections 7 and 8 of the bill, which are to be purchased by the corporation or decreed by the court to be conveyed. Irrigation districts as organized are in the nature of municipal corporations, and franchises owned and exercised by them mainly arise and exist from their character as political bodies. The sale and conveyance of such franchises as are of a municipal character possessed by irrigation districts would be prohibited by Section 13 of Article XI of the State Constitution.

HENRY T. GAGE,

Governor of the State of California.

Also:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, }
SACRAMENTO, March 8, 1901. }

To the Senate of the State of California:

I herewith return to your honorable body without my approval, with my objections thereto, Senate Bill No. 67, entitled "An Act to amend Section 343 of the Penal Code of the State of California, relating to and defining the offense of failing, refusing, or neglecting to produce for inspection the register of a pawnbroker and others, and specifying the penalty therefor."

This bill is designed to amend Section 343 of the Penal Code relating to pawnbrokers, and changes the existing law by compelling under penalty of being found guilty of a misdemeanor every pawnbroker, his agent, clerk, employe, or servant to produce his register and to exhibit all articles received by him in pledge or purchased by him, and his account of sales and purchases, for the inspection of any Sheriff, Chief of Police, City Marshal, or any other person specially authorized in writing by either of them.

As the law now reads, such inspection may be compelled under penalty of being found guilty of a misdemeanor, by any officer holding a search-warrant, or upon order of a committing magistrate directing an officer to make such inspection.

A law has recently been passed by this Legislature adding a new section to the Penal Code, numbered 344, which makes said section of the Penal Code applicable to all persons carrying on the business of junk-dealers, their clerks, employes, servants, and agents, as well as to pawnbrokers.

All persons, therefore, carrying on the business of junk-dealing and of pawnbroking, their employes and agents, will be subject to the penal provisions of this bill, if it be permitted to become a law.

While it is right and expedient to legislate against illicit methods in conducting the business of junk-dealing and pawnbroking, so as to prevent criminals from concealing and disposing of stolen property, yet on the other hand the law should not be so extended as to permit such dealers to be wronged or oppressed as the result of too rigid and extreme legislation.

As long as it is lawful for persons to engage in the business of pawnbroking and junk-dealing, there is no justification in subjecting such persons to probable oppression by forcing them upon mere pretext or whim to exhibit all of the articles purchased by them or received in pledge, or their business accounts, to any person who might be able to secure a written order from a Sheriff, Chief of Police, or City Marshal.

The enactment of such a law would tend to drive from these lawful pursuits reputable people who now gain their livelihood by such business, and would moreover induce the employment of disreputable methods and schemes to evade the unjust provisions.

The wisdom of penal laws lies in the proper adjustment of ethical balances, and when the provisions are discriminatory and oppressive the direct and substantial object of preventing crime is never attained.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, }
SACRAMENTO, March 8, 1901. }

To the Senate of the State of California:

I herewith return to your honorable body without my approval, with my objections thereto, Senate Bill No. 199, entitled "An Act to amend Section 680 of the Political Code, relating to the investment of moneys proceeding from the sale of State school lands."

It is proposed by the present bill to amend Section 680 of the Political Code by taking from the State Board of Examiners the power of investing the proceeds of the sale of State school lands in the civil funded bonds of this State, United States bonds, and in bonds of the several counties, and giving this power to the State Treasurer, to be exercised by and with the approval of the Board of Examiners, and with like further power to said State Treasurer to invest said money in bonds of the several municipalities and school districts of this State.

I perceive no reason nor necessity for this transfer of duty from the Board of Examiners, and danger may be apprehended from authorizing the investment of such school funds in municipal and school district bonds. It would be difficult for the State Treasurer and Board of Examiners to become acquainted and satisfied with these various classes of securities for investment; and, besides entailing great labor upon the Attorney-General in their examination, it is not unlikely that politics might in the future enter as a factor in the negotiations for the sale of such municipal and school district securities, thus imperiling the safety of these funds.

It is preferable that the school money should remain partly uninvested, waiting the better class of securities, than that the capital should be subjected to the risk of future complications and embarrassments which might arise under the proposed bill.

Governor of the State of California.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, }
SACRAMENTO, March 8, 1901. }

To the Senate of the State of California:

I herewith return to your honorable body, without my approval, with my objections thereto, Senate Bill No. 370, entitled "An Act to amend Section 1 of an Act entitled 'An Act to authorize, empower, and direct the California Home for the Care and Training of Feeble-Minded Children to admit idiots, epileptics, and mentally-enfeebled paralytics into said institution; to provide for the support of all inmates therein, and to repeal all Acts or parts of Acts in conflict with the provisions of this Act,' approved March 31, 1897."

While the amendments proposed by this bill to the said Act of March 31, 1897, respecting the construction to be given the commitment of the court in the matter of the admission of inmates to the Home for the Care and Training of Feeble-Minded Children, and respecting the further duties imposed upon the county auditors and treasurers, which amendments would otherwise meet with my approval, yet on the other hand these beneficial amendments are offset by the provision inserted in this bill requiring the report of the superintendent of the home to be filed only in the office of and for the special information of the State Controller, instead of, as now required, in the offices of the State Treasurer, Board of Examiners, and of the Controller. It is especially a matter of importance that the State Treasurer and Board of Examiners should be furnished with this information, and there is neither reason nor excuse for amending the present law by depriving these officers of equal power and equal sources of information concerning the care and expenditures of the home which it is designed by this amendment to give to the Controller alone.

HENRY T. GAGE,
Governor of the State of California.

PETITION.

The following petition was presented by Senator Devlin, and ordered printed in the Journal:

WHEREAS, The committee appointed by the Senate at the thirty-second session of the Legislature to make an examination of State institutions, in referring to the Board of State Harbor Commissioners, reports: "There is no occasion whatever for a superintendent of the (ferry) building except to give some one a place, the law placing the superintendency of that building in the Chief Wharfinger"; and

WHEREAS, The commission now has a man on its pay-roll at $100 per month as superintendent of the ferry building; and

WHEREAS, This Senate report further says: "There is no occasion for the employment of any police force by the Harbor Commission in the City of San Francisco, as it is the duty of the city and its police department to take care of all property within the city, and there is no authority of law and no necessity, so far as your committee can learn, for the maintenance of any such force"; and

WHEREAS, The commission now has in its employ two policemen at $75 per month; and

WHEREAS, Said report further says: "Watchmen are maintained upon the wharves, which is an unnecessary expense, the claim being made that because the State does not insure its property, it becomes necessary to employ watchmen to guard it." Your committee is of the opinion that there is nothing substantial in this claim. On all the wharves occupied to any great extent by transportation companies they themselves keep a watchman for the protection of their own property, and certainly the State has no occasion to keep one itself under such circumstances, and there is no occasion for the employment of these watchmen that your committee is advised of; and

WHEREAS, The commission now employs three watchmen at a salary of $75 per month; and

WHEREAS, Howard C. Holmes, chief engineer of the commission, in his report to the board for the two fiscal years ending June 30, 1900, says: "In the years 1899 and 1900 the number of cars switched on the Belt Railroad were 48,600, at an actual cost of about $1.25 per car, or at a loss of fifty cents per car for every car switched," thus showing a loss of over $12,000 per annum in this one item alone; and

WHEREAS, Grave charges of extravagance and unbusiness-like methods of management have been preferred against the Board of State Harbor Commissioners of San Francisco, not alone by the public press, but by reputable citizens and the Chamber of Commerce of San Francisco; therefore, be it

Resolved by Elk Grove Grange of the Order of Patrons of Husbandry, That we, the members of said grange, individually as taxpayers and citizens, and collectively as an organization, having the welfare of our State, and especially the agricultural interests thereof, at heart, do most earnestly, yet respectfully, request the Legislature of California at its present session to take some action looking toward the thorough and impartial investigation of the management of said commission; and we would suggest that a hold-over committee be appointed for this purpose, in order that it make a complete examination of the affairs of the commission and report to the next session of the Legislature. And we would suggest to the Legislature the advisability, in case such a committee is appointed, of placing men thereon of known integrity and ability (and we believe there are such among even our much-abused legislators), for, we believe, if an attempt is made to whitewash or smother this thing the day will come when it will "smell to high heaven" and be investigated by "the people," and when that day does come, woe betide the men and party who attempt to smother it; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution, duly signed by the secretary of this grange, stamped with the seal thereof, and countersigned by the master, be forwarded to Robt. T. Devlin, our representative in the State Legislature at Sacramento, with the request that he lay this matter before the Legislature and urge its investigation; and be it further

Resolved, That every subordinate grange in California be asked to urge their representatives in the Legislature to take similar action, inasmuch as this is a matter that touches the pockets of every producer in the State.

L. S. DART, Master.
J. M. WOODARD, Secretary.

HENRY T. GAGE,
Governor of the State of California.

Also:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, }
SACRAMENTO, March 13, 1901. }

To the Senate of the State of California:

I herewith return to your honorable body without my approval Committee Substitute for Senate Bills Nos. 311 and 382, entitled "An Act authorizing suits against the State on claims or demands arising under an Act of the Legislature entitled 'An Act fixing a bounty on coyote scalps,' approved March 31, 1891, and regulating the procedure therein, and making an appropriation for the payment of any final judgments which may be recovered thereunder."

This bill authorizes the owners and holders of claims for bounties on coyote scalps to commence and prosecute suits for their claims in any of the courts of the State of competent jurisdiction, and appropriates the sum of $287,615 for the payment of all judgments obtained in said suits. Although the terms of the bill appear to be fair for the State, so far as lawful claims may exist under the former Coyote Scalp Bounty Act, yet I do not approve of the appropriation at this time of the specific sum of $287,615, which must be raised by taxation.

This same amount was presented in different forms of bills to Governor Markham and Governor Budd, but failed to receive their approval. In my inaugural address I called the attention of the Legislature at its thirty-third session to the messages of Governor Markham and Governor Budd, and to the report of the Controller for the years 1897 and 1898 upon this subject, and said: "From the foregoing reports it will be observed that these claims, amounting to $287,615, are as a whole tainted with fraud, and the honest claims, if any, are not segregated from the dishonest demands, and should be segregated before any appropriations are made."

The direct appropriation at this time of this specific sum of $287,615, to be made in payment of the judgments to be obtained covers all claims, both fraudulent and lawful, and will tax the people in advance of the ascertainment of the actual claims justly due, so that it is probable that an amount exceeding that required for the payment of lawful claims would be thereby levied. Thus it will be manifest that the lawful claims should be reduced to judgments before any appropriation should be made therefor, and the judgments when obtained, should follow the usual course. Such a procedure as this would protect alike the interests of the claimants and of the State and be just to both, thus settling a long-vexed question.

It is but right that the State should pay all just demands against it, but not in advance of the determination of the validity and amount of such claims.

It is required that a limit should be drawn now against further appropriations, other than those of the most urgent and necessary character; otherwise the cost of running the State will be unusually increased, and will become a very great burden to the taxpayers.

This Legislature, among other bills, has already passed for my consideration various road bills carrying large appropriations, aggregating hundreds of thousands of dollars, which if approved by me would at this time be a grievous wrong and burden upon the taxpayers of the State. In a message this day transmitted to the Assembly disapproving one of these bills, I was obliged to call attention to these excessive appropriations, and to appeal to that body to refrain, as far as possible, from giving their further sanction to bills carrying appropriations except of the most urgent and necessary character. I most respectfully appeal likewise to your honorable body to cooperate with me in preventing the passage of further appropriation bills, which however praiseworthy in purpose, should not and cannot receive my approval at this session, in view of the many more necessary State needs and of the many special appropriations already passed. The responsibility of rejecting bills carrying appropriations which would unnecessarily increase the tax levy should not be shifted from your honorable body to the Executive. Your cooperation in the work of economy is a solemn duty to the people of the State.

Notwithstanding the many appeals which are made in behalf of particular localities deeply concerned in the passage of bills carrying large appropriations, you should remember that the interests of the people of the whole State are above the interests of any particular section.

The pledge to economy, which was an essential part of the platform of the party that elected me and the dominant party in your honorable body, requires Republican cooperation in the labor of curtailing the State's expenses, and limiting as far as possible the special as well as general appropriations, in order that the taxpayers may not be unduly burdened.

HENRY T. GAGE,
Governor of the State of California.

At nine o'clock and five minutes p. m., Hon. Frank W. Leavitt, State Senator from the Twenty-sixth Senatorial District, in the chair.

READING OF JOURNAL.

The Journal of Thursday, March 14, 1901, was read.

APPROVAL OF JOURNAL.

The Journal of Monday, March 11, 1901, having been previously read and corrected, was approved.

PRESENTATION OF PETITION.

The following petition was received by the President of the Senate, Hon. Jacob H. Neff, and ordered printed in the Journal:

WHEREAS, The committee appointed by the Senate at the thirty-second session of the Legislature to make an examination of State institutions, in referring to the Board of State Harbor Commissioners, reports: "There is no occasion whatever for a superintendent of the (Ferry) building, except to give some one a place, the law placing the superintendency of that building in the Chief Wharfinger"; and

WHEREAS, The commission now has a man on its payroll at $100 per month as superintendent of the Ferry building; and

WHEREAS, This Senate report further says: "There is no occasion for the employment of any police force by the Harbor Commission in the City of San Francisco, as it is the duty of the city and its police department to take care of all property within the city, and there is no authority of law and no necessity, so far as your committee can learn, for the maintenance of any such force"; and

WHEREAS, The commission now has in its employ two policemen at $75 per month; and

WHEREAS, Said report further says: "Watchmen are maintained upon the wharves, which is an unnecessary expense, the claim being made that because the State does not insure its property, it becomes necessary to employ watchmen to guard it. Your committee is of the opinion that there is nothing substantial in this claim. On all the wharves occupied to any great extent by transportation companies they themselves keep a watchman for the protection of their own property, and certainly the State has no occasion to keep one itself under such circumstances, and there is no occasion for the employment of these watchmen that your committee is advised of"; and

WHEREAS, The commission now employs three watchmen at a salary of $75 per month; and

WHEREAS, Howard C. Holmes, chief engineer of the commission, in his report to the board for the two fiscal years ending June 30, 1900, says: "In the years 1899 and 1900, the number of cars switched on the Belt Railroad were 48,600, at an actual cost of about $1.25 per car, or at a loss of 50 cents per car for every car switched," thus showing a loss of over $12,000 per annum in this one item alone; and,

WHEREAS, Grave charges of extravagance and unbusiness-like methods of management have been preferred against the Board of State Harbor Commissioners of San Francisco, not alone by the public press, but by reputable citizens, and the Chamber of Commerce of San Francisco; therefore, be it

Resolved by Progressive Grange No. 308 of the Order of Patrons of Husbandry. That we, the members of said grange, individually as taxpayers and citizens, and collectively as an organization, having the welfare of our State, and especially the agricultural interests thereof, at heart, do most earnestly, yet respectfully, request the Legislature of California at its present session to take some action looking toward the thorough and impartial investigation of the management of said commission, and we suggest that a hold-over committee be appointed for this purpose in order that it may make a complete examination of the affairs of the commission, and report to the next session of the Legislature. And we would suggest to the Legislature the advisability, in case such a committee is appointed, of placing men thereon of known integrity and ability (and we believe there are such among even our much-abused legislators), for we believe if an attempt is made to whitewash or smother this thing, the day will come when it will "smell to high heaven" and be investigated by "the people," and when that day comes woe betide the men and party who attempt to smother it; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution, duly signed by the secretary of this grange, stamped with the seal thereof, and countersigned by the master, be forwarded to Hon. Mr. Coombs and our representatives in the State Legislature at Sacramento, with the request that they lay this matter before the Legislature and urge its investigation; and be it further

Resolved, That every subordinate grange in California be asked to urge their representatives in the Legislature to take similar action, inasmuch as this is a matter that touches the pockets of every producer in the State.

[SEAL.]

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR.

On motion of Senator Leavitt, the following messages from the Governor were taken up and read:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, }
SACRAMENTO, March 15, 1901.

To the Senate of the State of California:

I have the honor to inform you that I have approved Senate Bill No. 637, entitled "An Act to amend Section 1240 of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California, relating to the taking of property under the right of eminent domain, and authorizing proceedings therefor"; and No. 539, entitled "An Act to provide a continuous appropriation for the support and maintenance of the University of California, to be an item of the General Appropriation Bill"; and No. 310, entitled "An Act to regulate the practice of pharmacy and sale of poisons in the State of California"; and No. 406, entitled "An Act to amend Section 1 of an Act entitled 'An Act to form agricultural districts, to provide for formation of agricultural associations therein, and for the management and control of the same by the State, and to repeal all Acts and parts of Acts in conflict with this Act,' approved March 31, 1897, by constituting Yolo and Sacramento counties the Fortieth District, Lake County the Twelfth District, and Mendocino the Forty-fifth District."

HENRY T. GAGE,
Governor of the State of California.

Also:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, }
SACRAMENTO, March 15, 1901.

To the Senate of the State of California:

I herewith return to your honorable body without my approval Senate Bill No. 231, entitled "An Act to amend Section 412 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to service of summons by publication, and the taking of affidavits to be used in procuring the order for publication of summons."

Having approved Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 138, revising the Code of Civil Procedure, and the language of this proposed amendment being exactly the same as the revised Section 412 of said Committee Substitute, my approval of the present measure would be useless as well as unnecessary.

HENRY T. GAGE,
Governor of the State of California.

Also:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, }
SACRAMENTO, March 15, 1901. }

To the Senate of the State of California:

I herewith return to your honorable body without my approval Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 116, entitled "An Act to amend the Penal Code by adding a new section to Title VIII, Chapter X thereof, to be known as Section 258, defining and providing a penalty for the crime of slander."

While not disapproving of this bill on its merits, I respectfully call your attention to the erroneous numbering of this proposed new section of the Penal Code, it being numbered two hundred and fifty-eight, notwithstanding that there is now a section of said Penal Code of the same number relating to another subject; hence the present proposed section of the Penal Code should be designated by a different number.

HENRY T. GAGE,
Governor of the State of California.

Also:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, }
SACRAMENTO, March 15, 1901. }

To the Senate of the State of California:

I herewith return to your honorable body without my approval, with my objections thereto, Senate Bill No. 16, entitled "An Act providing for the acquisition, either by purchase or by the exercise of the power of eminent domain, of a certain small tract of land located in the midst of the grounds of the Veterans' Home at Yountville, in this State, and making an appropriation therefor."

This bill appropriates $5,000 for the purchase of a narrow strip of land located in the grounds of the Veterans' Home, and now claimed as a right of way. In view of the many most urgent appropriations already passed for State institutions, aggregating a large sum, and of the large increase in the amounts required for the maintenance of the schools, and the orphans and half-orphans under the requirements of existing laws providing continued appropriations, I cannot at this time sanction this appropriation, for it is neither urgent nor absolutely necessary. The other more pressing demands of the State, as well as the requirements of economy, must oppose the loose policy of purchasing this year any additional property for State institutions. The Veterans' Home can get along very well for the next two years without exercising, at an expense to the State, the power of eminent domain over this strip of land. A State, like an individual, ought to satisfy the just claims of its creditors and provide for its necessities before making new purchases and venturing into new enterprises.

HENRY T. GAGE,
Governor of the State of California.

Also:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, }
SACRAMENTO, March 15, 1901. }

To the Senate of the State of California:

I herewith return to your honorable body without my approval Senate Bill No. 620, entitled "An Act making an appropriation to pay the claim of the County of Marin against the State of California."

I regret being obliged again to refuse to approve this claim, but the principal objection remains, which I stated in my message to your honorable body on February 20, 1901, when disapproving Senate Bill No. 2. (See Senate Journal, February 20, 1901, page 17.) With the exception of the time when the appropriation becomes available, this bill is the same as Senate Bill No. 2. No facts have since been furnished to me which would give this claim a new aspect, and I have again made inquiry of the Secretary of the State Board of Examiners whether any data respecting this claim of the County of Marin had been filed in the office, and I received positive information that the claim had never been presented to the board by the State Prison Directors, or by the county, as required by law. Such presentation was necessary, inasmuch as the items of such accounts, after allowance by the State Prison Directors, and before payment out of the funds for the support of the State Prison, must be audited by the State Board of Examiners.

By Section 111 of the Penal Code, all claims of the nature of those which are the basis of this bill are to be paid out of the fund appropriated for the support of the State Prison only, and not out of the General Fund, as is here attempted. The County of Marin cannot claim to be exempted from the law which governs the County of Sacramento. Sacramento County has found no difficulty in having her claims allowed when presented in pursuance of the provisions of the general law upon this subject, and the claims of Marin County should certainly not prove an exception. While a general law exists concerning the payment of such claims, the passage of an Act excepting a particular county from the operation of that law and providing for payment of its claims in a different manner, and out of a different fund, would be a special law, and therefore unconstitutional and void.

In the General Appropriation Act, approved March 17, 1899, two hundred thousand dollars was appropriated for the support of the State Prison at San Quentin, and this claim, if the items be correct, are properly chargeable against this appropriation. If the items of the claim summed up in this bill be correct, and if they be presented in the regular manner, I am satisfied they will be duly paid; but should any delay or obstacle be interposed, upon my attention being directed thereto, I will endeavor to secure speedy payment.

HENRY T. GAGE,
Governor of the State of California.

The question being, "Shall Senate Bill No. 231 become a law notwithstanding the Governor's objections thereto?"

The roll was called, and the objections of the Governor sustained by the following vote:

AYES—None.

NOES—Senators Bettman, Burnett, Corlett, Currier, Davis, Goad, Greenwell, Hoey, Laird, Lardner, Leavitt, Luchsinger, Lukens, Maggard, Muentner, Nelson, Nutt, Rowell, Shortridge, Simpson, Taylor, Tyrrell of San Francisco, and Wolfe—23.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR.

On motion of Senator Wolfe, the following messages from the Governor were taken up and read:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, {
SACRAMENTO, March 16, 1901. }

To the Senate of the State of California:

I have the honor to inform your honorable body that I have approved Senate Bill No. 512, entitled "An Act to provide for the appointment of a Board of Monterey Custom House Trustees and for the acquisition of the control of the Monterey Custom House property, and providing for an appropriation for the preservation, protection, and improvement of said property"; and Senate Bill No. 627, entitled "An Act to authorize and empower the State Board of Prison Directors to purchase California-grown hemp, to be used in the manufacture of grain bags, and to fix the price at which such bags shall be sold"; and Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 592, entitled "An Act to amend an Act entitled 'An Act to provide for the issue and sale or exchange of funding bonds of irrigation districts organized under and in pursuance of an Act of the Legislature of the State of California, entitled 'An Act to provide for the organization and government of irrigation district, and to provide for the acquisition of water and other property, and for the distribution of water thereby for irrigation purposes,' approved March 7, 1887, to provide for the payment of such bonds, and for proceedings to test the validity of same,' approved April 1, 1897, by repealing Sections 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, and 10, and by amending Sections 4, 16, and 18 thereof."

HENRY T. GAGE,
Governor of the State of California.

Also:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, {
SACRAMENTO, March 16, 1901. }

To the Senate of the State of California:

I herewith return to your honorable body without my approval, with my objections thereto, Senate Bill No. 365, entitled "An Act for the relief of J. E. Atkinson for personal injuries received by him while in the service of the State."

This bill appropriates the sum of $15,000 for the purpose expressed on the face of the bill of paying the claim of J. E. Atkinson for personal injuries sustained by the loss of his leg while in the discharge of his duties under the orders of a superior at the Stockton State Hospital while in the service of the State of California.

I very much regret to be obliged to disapprove of this bill, in view of the sad and unfortunate condition of Mr. Atkinson, but according to the opinion of the Code Commissioners, hereto attached, the bill is void, being opposed to Section 32, Article IV of the Constitution of the State; and therefore duty requires me to withhold my approval.

It seems to me that a future Legislature should provide a general law fitting such cases, whereby the State might afford relief in such like unhappy instances where any of its citizens are disabled in the service of the State.

HENRY T. GAGE,
Governor of the State of California.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONERS FOR THE
REVISION AND REFORM OF THE LAW. }
SACRAMENTO, March 16, 1901. }

To His Excellency the Governor:

In response to your request of March 15th, for our opinion respecting the constitutionality of Senate Bill No. 365, entitled "An Act for the relief of J. E. Atkinson for personal injuries received by him while in the service of the State," we respectfully reply that we have no doubt that the Act is unconstitutional and void within the decision of the Supreme Court of this State, in the case of Bourn vs. Hart, 93 Cal. 321.

The bill here in question corresponds so perfectly in all substantial respects with the one there denounced as unconstitutional as to leave no room for question that it is conclusively covered by the decision in that case.

Yours respectfully,

A. C. FREEMAN,
W. C. VAN FLEET,
Commissioners.

The question being, "Shall Senate Bill No. 365 become a law notwithstanding the Governor's objections thereto?"

The roll was called, and the objections of the Governor sustained by the following vote:

AYES—None.

NOES—Senators Ashe, Bettman, Byrnes, Caldwell, Corlett, Currier, Curtin, Cutter, Davis, Flint, Goad, Lardner, Leavitt, Luchsinger, Lukens, Maggard, Nelson, Nutt, Rowell, Shortridge, Simpson, Sims, Smith of Kern, Smith of Los Angeles, Taylor, Tyrrell of Nevada, Welch, and Wolfe—28.

Also:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, }
SACRAMENTO, March 16, 1901. }

To the Senate of the State of California:

I herewith return to your honorable body without my approval, with my objections thereto, Senate Bill No. 473, entitled "An Act adding a new section to the Political Code of California, to be numbered Section 248, relating to the branding and labeling of convict-made goods."

This measure adds a new section to the Political Code, declaring it a misdemeanor to sell or expose for sale within this State goods, wares, and merchandise made by convict labor without branding and labeling the same as "convict made."

The bill excepts the lawfully made articles manufactured in the penal institutions of the State. The bill is very obscurely worded, and actually useless as a preventive or remedial measure against the acts designed to be prevented. It is, moreover, absurdly made part of the Political Code. The necessity for uniformity in our codes and explicit laws makes it impossible for me to give this bill my approval.

HENRY T. GAGE,
Governor of the State of California.

The question being, "Shall Senate Bill No. 473 become a law notwithstanding the Governor's objections thereto?"

The roll was called, and the objections of the Governor sustained by the following vote:

AYES—None.

NOES—Senators Bettman, Byrnes, Caldwell, Corlett, Currier, Curtin, Cutter, Davis, Devlin, Flint, Goad, Lardner, Leavitt, Luchsinger, Lukens, Maggard, Nelson, Nutt, Rowell, Shortridge, Simpson, Smith of Kern, Smith of Los Angeles, Welch, and Wolfe—25.

Also :

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, }
SACRAMENTO, March 16, 1901. }

To the Senate of the State of California:

I herewith return to your honorable body without my approval, with my objections thereto, Senate Bill No. 7, entitled "An Act to provide for the joint investigation with the Federal Government of the water resources of the State, and of the best methods of preserving the forests thereof; appointing a Board of Water and Forest Commissioners to conduct such investigations on behalf of the State, and making an appropriation for the expenses of such investigations."

This bill establishes a Board of Water and Forest Commissioners, and appropriates $107,000 as a special fund for the carrying out of the purposes of the Act. The commissioners by this Act have power to enter into contracts with the representatives of any department of the Federal Government for the purpose of making topographic surveys and a joint investigation of the water resources of the State and best methods of developing, controlling, and utilizing the same, and the best methods of preserving the forests.

While this measure might contribute to important and beneficial results to the State, the large appropriation which it carries, when considered together with the large appropriation demanded in the purchase of the Redwood Park under the terms of Assembly Bill No. 873, made it impossible for me, at this session, to approve both bills without resulting in great burden to the taxpayers, or the necessity of my disapproving other more pressing and needed appropriations which are before me.

The question, therefore, to be decided by me was whether this measure or Assembly Bill No. 873 should be vetoed, for it would be an injustice to the taxpayers of the State to approve both bills.

Upon mature consideration, and in view of the representations made to me by numerous citizens of the State that the magnificent redwood trees were likely to be destroyed, thereby resulting in irreparable injury to the State, and imbued with the desire that a portion at least of the Big Basin of the Redwoods should be preserved as a public park, where poor and rich alike might enjoy the pleasures of these grand groves of nature, I felt it my duty to slightly overstep the lines of strict State economy inaugurated by the Republican party, and obligatory upon me, and to approve the bill for the establishment of the Redwood Park.

In exercising this choice, I am compelled to veto the present measure, which might otherwise meet with my approval, because the preservation of the redwoods appears to me a matter of urgency as well as of greater necessity and importance.

HENRY T. GAGE,
Governor of the State of California.

The question being, "Shall Senate Bill No. 7 become a law notwithstanding the Governor's objections thereto?"

The roll was called, and the objections of the Governor sustained by the following vote:

AYES—Senators Belshaw, Caldwell, Davis, Flint, Rowell, and Smith of Kern—6.

NOES—Senators Ashe, Bettman, Byrnes, Corlett, Currier, Curtin, Cutter, Devlin, Goad, Lardner, Leavitt, Luchsinger, Lukens, Maggard, Nelson, Nutt, Selvage, Shortridge, Simpson, Smith of Los Angeles, Taylor, Tyrrell of Nevada, Tyrrell of San Francisco, and Welch—24.

CONSIDERATION OF SPECIAL ORDER.

The hour for consideration of special order heretofore set, being consideration of the vetoes of the Governor to Senate Bill No. 161—An Act providing for an appropriation for the purpose of purchasing additional land for Sutter's Fort, and for improving the grounds about said fort—and Committee Substitute for Senate Bills Nos. 311 and 382—An Act authorizing suits against the State on claims or demands arising under an Act of the Legislature, entitled "An Act fixing a bounty on coyote scalps," approved March 31, 1891, and regulating the procedure therein, and making an appropriation for the payment of any final judgments which may be recovered thereunder—having arrived, the same was taken up.

The question being, "Shall Senate Bill No. 161 become a law notwithstanding the Governor's objections thereto?"

The roll was called, and the objections of the Governor sustained by the following vote:

AYES—Senators Belshaw and Flint—2.

NOES—Senators Ashe, Bettman, Caldwell, Currier, Curtin, Goad, Laird, Lardner, Leavitt, Luchsinger, Lukens, Maggard, Nelson, Nutt, Rowell, Selvage, Shortridge, Smith of Los Angeles, Tyrrell of Nevada, Tyrrell of San Francisco, Welch, and Wolfe—22.

The question being, "Shall Committee Substitute for Senate Bills Nos. 311 and 382 become a law notwithstanding the Governor's objections thereto?"

CONSIDERATION OF CONCURRENT RESOLUTION.

Senator Lukens asked for and was granted unanimous consent to take up Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 10 for immediate consideration.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 10.

Resolution welcoming to the State of California the International Convention of Epworth Leagues upon the occasion of its fifth biennial session, to be held in San Francisco, July 18 to 21, 1901.

WHEREAS, The fifth International Convention of Epworth Leagues is to be held in the City of San Francisco, this State, July eighteenth to twenty-first, nineteen hundred and one; and

WHEREAS, The Epworth League is an organization of the young people of the Methodist Church, with an aggregate membership of two and one half millions of persons, located principally in the United States and Canada, and having societies in nearly all the different countries of the world, which organization has for its object the promotion of piety and loyalty to religion, education in the Bible and Christian literature, encouragement in works of charity, and right living among its members, and their development in upright citizenship; and

WHEREAS, At the previous biennial international conventions of the League, held in Eastern and Southern cities of the United States and Canada, the attendance has reached as high as fifty thousand persons; and

WHEREAS, A large number of our citizens in public and private life have for nearly two years last past been devoting their time, labor, and funds in the promotion of this great convention, and will continue so to labor and devote their energies in this behalf, and will to the last, that the convention may be a success, and that the many thousands of visitors to California may be hospitably received; and

WHEREAS, By reason of the superior attractions offered by a trip to California, by reason of the prevailing good times, by reason of the prominence attained by California in Oriental affairs, and by reason of the extremely low rates for transportation to and from the State on account of this convention, agreed upon by the Railway Association of the United States, which rates are more favorable than those granted to the International Convention of Christian Endeavor of eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, with terms and provisions permitting holders of tickets to visit numerous points of interest in the State, and which rates of transportation are available to everybody whether members of the League or not, and by reason of the great success and unmarred pleasure attending the International Convention of Christian Endeavor of eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, and by reason of the world-wide fame of the State of California for unbounded hospitality, it is confidently expected by those who have in charge the arrangements for the coming convention that more than thirty-five thousand people will visit our State in July next; and

WHEREAS, It is meet and proper that the people of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, should welcome to our splendid State the delegates to the convention of nineteen hundred and one, and their accompanying friends, and others drawn here upon this great occasion; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly concurring therein, That the Legislature of the State of California, in its thirty-fourth session assembled, does hereby extend to the members of the Epworth League from all parts of the world, and their accompanying friends, a hearty greeting and a cordial welcome to our beloved State upon this, the occasion of their Fifth Biennial International Convention, and assure them that we believe that much benefit will be derived by the people of our own State from the visit of those who will come within our borders at the time of this great gathering, and sincerely hope that much good will come to those who thus visit us. We assure our intending visitors that they will find in the hearts of our people a sincere regard for, and an "earnest interest in that moral culture which is elevating and helpful to humanity," and among our citizens a deep-seated purpose to aid and encourage good works, and that in the homes of our people they will find the same reverence for God that characterizes true Christianity wherever found.

In this the opening year of the new century, the eyes of the entire world are turned toward the Orient. California and her great metropolis, San Francisco, command the approaches to the far east. With fifty years of statehood, forming a glorious past, California occupies a commanding position, with possibilities seldom equaled and never surpassed by any other State in the Union.

We point to our countless churches, our works of art, our scientific institutions, and our splendid school system, crowned with our great State University, as evidences of our spiritual and intellectual progress. From the founding of the first mission at San Diego, in 1769, by the Spanish Fathers, the progress of Christian teaching may be traced through the rude and now ruined missions, through the rough frontier churches and schoolhouses, to our great cathedrals and magnificent seats of learning of to-day. We point to the farms and orchards in our fertile valleys, to the mines of our productive hills, our great cities, and our railways and waterways, burdened with the commerce of the world, as evidences of our material prosperity. Our great ship-building plants, our factories, mills, and our varied industries demonstrate progress in the mechanical arts.

The vast annual output of our gold mines; the enormous value of our cereal and fruit crops; the immensity of our wool, lumber, oil, and other industries, tell the story of the richness of our State.

To an enjoyment of the riches and best products of our State we bid our visitors welcome. Within our borders they may luxuriate amid semi-tropical scenes of San Diego, Coronado, Pasadena, and Los Angeles; they may wander at will amid scenes of nature's grandeur found in the Yosemite Valley, Monterey, and elsewhere; and amidst the frozen fastnesses of Shasta's summit they may find solitude equal to that of the polar regions. In the great valleys and along the hills they will find scenes with vine and fig-tree setting, bringing to mind Italy, Palestine, and the East. In San Francisco and our other large cities will be found Oriental quarters that will offer opportunities to study the people of Eastern nations in their own peculiar surroundings. To these and other points of interest and entertaining scenes we bid our visitors come. In the name of a million and a half of hospitable citizens, we bid them welcome to California.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE.

The following report of special committee was received and read:

SENATE CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, March 16, 1901.

MR. PRESIDENT: Your special committee appointed to draft an expression of this Senate on the life and character of the late Benjamin Harrison, beg to report as follows:

The State of California feels deeply the great loss the nation has sustained by the death of our beloved ex-President, Benjamin Harrison.

It is indeed difficult to estimate fully or justly, at this time, the great character of our distinguished dead. Time alone can furnish the test by which his services, his achievements, his true life-work may be measured, and his proper place in the gallery of the undying dead may be finally decided upon by his devoted countrymen and the impartial judgment of mankind. But this we all do know: He was but yesterday one of our number, having common sentiments, hopes, and aspirations with us. He inherited no fortune other than a distinguished name; his energy, his perseverance, and care achieved reasonable fortune, and his pureness of heart, his symmetrical character, his cool and unimpassioned judgment, his fidelity to truth, his exaltation of duty above self, brightened the name he bore and insured its transmission untarnished to generations yet unborn. It is but just to say he was a great man; he was a successful and a respected President. Possibly he was not loved by the people as much as Lincoln or Garfield nor did he inspire and thrill the hearts of the people as did the immortal Grant: but he was a Choate in learning, possessed a dignity of mind, and was as unyielding and uncompromising, as lofty, and as sure in his rectitude, as was our beloved Washington.

He was a work boy, student, soldier, general, statesman; refined, pure-hearted, patriotic, and unbending in his devotion to the Constitution and the flag. His private life was pure, his public services distinguished, and richly deserve the great name, the imperishable fame which is his now and will be whenever and wherever great talents and commanding virtues are admired and loved by mankind; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, That the sympathy of this body be and the same is hereby extended to the immediate relatives and friends of our late ex-President;

Resolved, That a copy of this report be transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to the widow of the beloved deceased.

S. C. SMITH.
WM. M. CUTTER.
CHAS. M. SHORTRIDGE.
A. A. CALDWELL.
R. PORTER ASHE.

The report was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.
